* Under Sec. 26 of the Finance Act, 1928, no interest is payable on these holdings.

† In addition to the liabilities given here, there are sundry contingent liabilities, as detailed on pages 82 to 85, of Finance Accounts for 1941–42, which the State is not likely to be called upon, to any material extent, to discharge. The Treasury has also undertaken to return to the United States Treasury as soon as possible after the end of the existing emergency, as determined by the President of the United States, 48 million ozs. of silver bullion, being the equivalent of the amount of silver transferred to the Government of the United Kingdom, up to the 31st March 1945, by the Government of the United States under the United States Act of 11 March 1941.

‡ Excluding advances from Vote of Credit to Dominions, Allied Powers, &c., and other advances shown on pages 62 and 63.

§ Consequent upon the separation of Burma from India, the Government of Burma has assumed liability for 7½ per cent. of the outstanding amount of the 5 per cent. War Loan, for which India undertook responsibility.
